1A	Faye M for being so brave and representing Year 1 in the Wake Up Shake Up team. Faye has been an absolute superstar and danced beautifully. Well done Faye! ☺	1J	Jacob Z for being a superstar this year. I've loved teaching Jacob this year and seeing his smiley, enthusiastic face in lessons. He is a great all rounder! Keep it up! ☺
2L	Yasmine A for a wonderful week – and year! She has improved so much in her work and confidence in class and on the playground. You are definitely ready for Year 3! ☺	2S	Hannah P for her fantastic focus on her learning, even though it is near the end of term. It's been a pleasure to teach Hannah this year! Well done! ☺
3C	James B for his excellent attitude throughout all aspects of school life. He always put in maximum effort and is a great friend. Well done! ☺	3W	Grace M working extremely hard in literacy and producing some super detailed writing. Grace puts 100% into everything she does! Well done! ☺
4CR	Molly S for being an exemplary pupil at this school. Molly has worked hard in all lessons throughout the year, taken part in the Wake Up Shake Up and done lots for the worship team. Well done! ☺	4H	Ryan J – for his excellent behaviour at the Mosque visit this week. He participated, answered lots of questions giving insightful thoughts and opinions. He has remembered lots from our RE lessons. He even tried on some traditional clothing. Well done Ryan! ☺
5C	Adam F for trying really hard to focus more in class. This has been evident in his maths where he has managed to persevere to solve lots of tricky problems. Well done! ☺	5O	Chloe McJ for having a growth mindset to her work, doing some super writing and showing a caring attitude towards others.
6C	Danaz S Star for an excellent attitude to end of Year 6 activities – learning lines, getting organised for Enterprise. Also going above and beyond and helping to tidy up well after the end of the school day – thank you!	6M	Josef A for his amazing attitude to Enterprise Day. He helped his own team but also provided resources for others and encouraged people to visit other groups – well done! ☺

Wake Up Shake Up

Following some very tough heats for our KS1 and KS2 Wake Up Shake Up teams in June at Benton Park, our KS2 team triumphantly qualified for the Leeds final after coming 1st in our area. On Tuesday 11th July we travelled up to Ralph Thorsby theatre for the final, buzzing with excitement (and a few nerves!). We were joined by teams from across Leeds who'd all won their own area heats. We watched the five super KS1 performances first and then it was our turn to perform 3rd out of five KS2 teams. We performed brilliantly with lots of composure, energy, synchronicity and smiles. It was then a nervous wait while the final teams performed and the judges made their decisions. We were very excited to be announced as silver medallists, which was a fantastic achievement!! We were pipped to the post by a very rhythmic, hip hop style routine from Holy Rosary Primary School in Chapel Town.

A big thank you to the children's parents for transporting them to both events and for being enthusiastic, supportive and encouraging throughout. And a big thank you to the wonderful KS2 team who've been a pleasure to work with this year. They've put in lots of commitment and hard work and have been great role models for the younger children. They were wonderful leaders at Dance-a-thon last Friday and the Year 6s will be sadly missed next year- I'm very proud of you all! Miss Johnson ☺
