‘The Best for Every Child -a Unique Child of God’
ISSUE No 8

24th October, 2024

Dear Parent / Carers

Our Christian Value this term is Thankfulness

Our Ethos Statement this week is: Be joyful always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus

Autumn Term

As the first part of our Autumn term comes to a close, I would like to reflect upon all that we have achieved together as one Holy Trinity family. Our PTA have been incredibly busy organising their many events that benefit our children. The sandpit has been an incredible success – I am so glad it is 5m² in size or we would have queues to use it 😊

Thank you for supporting us with lots of OPAL equipment – our children have really enjoyed using them and their playtimes have been full and enjoyable.

I am sure that your parent consultations were informative and that you enjoyed seeing the progress that your child has made over the course of this term.

Don’t forget that Friday is a training day and we will see you after half term on 4th November. We hope that you have a relaxing and reviving half term break.

Praying Parents - our next praying parents meeting will be on Wednesday 6th November at 9:30 – come for a coffee/tea and a biscuit after the morning drop off.

Pupil of the Week

1K 1K's pupil of the week is Leo Anderson. Leo is a hard working and caring member of 1K who always tries his best. It has been so lovely to see his confidence grow in Year 1 and his reading is improving. Keep up the fantastic work Leo, well done! 😊	1RC Our pupil of the week is Theo Ray. Theo has settled into year one really well. He is working hard in phonics and is now reading and spelling words with confidence. He tries his best in every lesson, and producing lovely pieces of work. Theo is a kind and caring friend to everyone. Well done. 😊
2J My pupil of the week this week is Finlay.	2S Well done to all of 2S for a fantastic first

The Best for Every Child- a Unique Child of God

Finlay has had a brilliant start to year 2. He's developing a brilliant determination to succeed and he's taking on board any corrections and applying himself to improve- which he's now doing in leaps and bounds. He clearly enjoys his learning and also made a super Tudor House box in DT this week, showing good design skills. His attitude towards his work means he'll make great progress in year 2. Keep it up Finlay. 😊	half term in Year 2! This week we have chosen Bethany Williams as our pupil of the week in 2S. Bethany has made such a fantastic start to year 2. All the adults are so impressed with her quiet enthusiasm and amazing perseverance. Bethany is so motivated to learn and always tries her best even when she finds something tricky. She's also a very kind and caring friend. Keep up all your hard work and effort Bethany, we're very proud of all your achievements so far! Well done! 😊
3R Well done to the whole of 3R for a fantastic half term! This week we have chosen Jack as 3R's pupil of the week. Jack has worked incredibly hard in all areas of his learning. He has impressed this week with his participation in maths and also with his work on forces and magnets in science. Jack is a fantastic member of 3R; he always listens well and sets a super example with his behaviour. Well done Jack! 😊	3W This week in 3W our pupil of the week is Nancy. Nancy has really impressed me with her newspaper article in English and she is always making the right choices and being helpful in class. She always tries her best in each subject and continues to impress me. Well Done Nancy, keep it up. 😊
4W Well done to all of 4W for a great first half term in year 4! This week, our Pupil of the Week is Alfie Hopkinson. Alfie has had a brilliant week and really impressed with his attitude to his learning. He has tried really hard, put maximum effort into his learning and as a result, produced some great work. He has made fantastic contributions to class discussions by answering questions and sharing his ideas. Well done, Alfie! 😊	4S This week in 4S our pupil of the week is Edward! Edward has had such an amazing start to Year 4 and has settled in so well. He is always demonstrating Year 4 behaviour and attitude throughout the school. This week we have been doing some tricky maths work but Edward has put in so much effort into all of our lessons and has kept going even when the work got hard! We are so proud of the progress he has made because of this amazing effort, and know that he will continue to do amazing work. Well done Edward! 😊
5L My 5L Pupil of the Week is Henry Speight for a wonderful half term of learning! I have seen Henry flourish this half term, really developing his writing skills in all areas of the curriculum, but particularly within our English units. He is a great friend to his peers and continues to demonstrate good teamwork skills when working in a group. Well done, Henry! 😊	5K I have chosen Jacob Snowdon for his fantastic efforts in history and geography lessons. He is so enthusiastic and willing to share all of his facts about America. It is lovely to see his deep interest in our topic. He also made a delicious cheesecake this morning. Well done Jacob! 😊
6C Ruby Jones for her super start to Year 6. She has a positive outlook to school life and	6E Jacob Clark is our pupil of the week this week. He has had a great term so far but I is always willing to share her ideas and opinions to our class discussions. In all lessons, she puts in maximum effort and is always willing to go into the learning pit. It has also been great to see her presentation improve each week. Well done Ruby – keep up the great attitude and hard work! 😊 have been particularly impressed with his maths ability, especially this week when answering some very difficult questions in our end of unit assessment. He is a great member of the class and someone who is always polite and well-mannered and someone who is willing to share his opinions. Well done, Jacob! 😊
